Hi Heidi,

Thank you for the birthday wishes, and responding to my writing. Your compassion for my struggle shows through your words!

We have a sacred word in my Lakota Sioux language that perfectly describes your spirit of compassion, "Mitakuye Oyasin", which means (We are all related). This one word reaches across lines of race, gender, and many other names society uses to keep us separate.

I hope we can become friends, and I hope you can in small ways support the Native American struggle for true freedom and equality? Please write to me at the address shown below.

Thank you for kind words!

Sincerely,

Robert A. Horse, Oglala Lakota,
