Hey mckaydaughter,

Well, I've been trying to find everyone for along time sis. Aunt Kay was trying to help me, but she couldn't find anyone. Mike went off grid, and all I remember about you was where you lived before I got locked up, which was in Concord. I lost all my information when I was arrested Dee.

It doesn't matter how long it took you to find me...What matters to me, is you did. I just found out last week, the letter I sent before to respond to your post, wasn't sent in. That's what I was told anyways. I was waiting for you to write me, as you said you were trying too. I don't know what happened or why you haven't written yet. I am hoping that you will. I would also like to get in touch with Mike too.

Look Dee, I hope you remember the trouble I was having with my ex back then. Like you said, she was going to destroy me. If I would have taken you up on moving back to Cali, then I wouldn't be here now. Although I got involved in drugs again, doesn't mean I'm guilty of what I was charged with Dee. It didn't happen!!! Past or no past!

Not only did I get on my ex's wrong side, because of drugs and messing around with other chicks, I got on her moms bad side because I refused to sleep with her, as well as stopped my ex from giving her my money. Well, my ex's mom and step dad, know everyone in the courthouse. Shoot, I was buying my coke from two different judges and a justice of the peace. They always threw parties at their ranch just outside the city, and everyone from the courthouse was always there.

Then, when my ex found someone else, she wanted to get me out of the picture and keep all the stuff we had, that I had bought and was doing. Then all of a sudden, the cops show up and arrest me.

Yes, I had/have a drug problem, Dee. (Although, I can't get any in here) I am working on that because I know it, and can't fix it unless I admit to the problem. But I will continue to deny what I was accused of til I die, because it didn't happen! The proof is in the reports.

Anyways, how is Nadal? I sure would like to hear from him. It's been so long. I know I let him down. I let everyone down Dee. Tell me what's been going on with the family, please. There is an easy way for you to contact me online. Just go to JPAY.com and fill out my information. It's just like e-mail, except when it gets here, they print it out and bring it to me. I don't have access to a computer. I just bought this typewriter. That's why I am finally starting to write me blog again. The short of it is, I messed up my hand on another inmate in the county jail in 07, and it hurts to write for very long, and I can't extend all my fingers at the same time. So I haven't been writing.

Yeah, there's alot of stuff I remember from our childhood's Dee, most of it not nice. I have some pictures of one of your birthdays Dee, that I don't think you have!!! I haven't been in touch with anyone but Aunt kay lately, not even the ones from LA. You already know how that family is. I won't get into that right now.

Anyways, I just wanted to write and hopefully get in touch with ya'll. I really don't mess many people around me, because I don't like playing their games. I stay mostly to myself, and do my own time. It's not easy when you're doing without family, but it is what it is.

Dee, I don't need anything but my family! I miss them. If I would've listened before, I'd be out there with ya'll right now. Anyways, I'm sorry for letting everyone down. I wish I could change it all, but it does no good to think about the past, but what we can do in the future. So I try not to dwell on the past.

Okay, please let me know what's going with you and everyone else. Before I got locked up, you told me the doc's told you that you didn't have long because of your kidneys...What changed?

I love you, Nadal, Mike and everyone else. Tell Mike to get in touch with me! Nadal too. Write when you can, I'll be here. Take care of yourself Dee, stay safe and well. Until I hear from you,

Your Brother,
