“Faith in man”

First off I know we've all been there trusting our fellow man or woman, to be what they claim to be, a true friend a shoulder to lean on, someone who'll lift you up when you're down and not have an ulterior* motive if you get the gist of what I mean?

It seems like if you're not valuable, to say the least that you're worthless, cause try finding a friend ~~that~~ who doesn't blame everyone else for their problems instead of identifying within themselves what honestly is the problem (self) we as people will point out everyone else's flaws but refuse to check ourselves. I'm just saying, there are no perfect people (period) and that's okay, for real, why try to imitate celebs I feel yah but come on you're unique and brilliant and beautiful in your own, we were designed to be an extraordinary race of human beings look at all of what we've accomplished even those who have been (encarcerated) that's not the bottom line everybody makes mistakes it's on us to change for the better, to be productive citizens I'm destined for greatness I, Jonathan De'mond White will show the world what the meaning of (I Care) truly stands for !!!
