[Message in a Bottle]
GUYS POWER

The NAME OF THIS PO'EM IS; The conflict Between
me,
you,
I,
The sexes!

When transcribing this handwritten copy, for some reason or another I did not transcribe the name of the poem on the front page as the title... I guess! where it should be. The only thing I could think of after the events that transpired when writing this literature, was just maybe! I did not wish for it to be published with the title on the front page. That, it appear in the back with the blog as some kind of author note.

When I was contemplating on how to write this literature piece a couple incidents inspired me. I want go into boring detail of the incidents. But ~~there~~ they're numerous of man out their in equally abusive relationship with a female and they simply hasn't identify it and a female and they simply hasn't identify it and feel trap in these unhealthy relationship. It was brought to my attention that one of these sexy ass pink toes was an or is an abuser of mine. That she is part of the conspiracy to defame, degrade my essence. That she is or a part of a group of correctional officials who abuse their authority to pull off this scam.

The fact is... if their are strictly male support groups out there, I most likely don't know about them which means that a lot of mans who maybe in need of them don't know about them. And we should. It's best that we empower ourselves to exit situation like these as soon as possible and seek the appropriate remedy to obtaining justice for the acts calls by these females.

If you know of some guy who's in a abusive relationship and is about to become a participant in that abuse by becoming an male abuser, see how you can get him on point and out of that relationship... what I blog about in my blogs is on the concept of discipline in maintaining a household structure. But believe you me I explicitly make it clear in my first opation is to dump their sorry immature ass. My ~~second~~ ^{second} opation is discipline & the question I ask them or put out there is, how many time out of a week, month, year, do... I HAVE TO; SLAP YOUR ASS FOR ^{you} to get it straight? Because if I HAVE TO; SLAP do it more then I wish, the relationship is over with. I will not be your abuser or be trap in a abusive unhealthy relationship. I don't advocate domestic violence. I advocate a mature concept of relationship OR marriage. Can a marriage or relationship be mature when their is discipline involve. we know for sure that a society become more structure and mature due to social disciplinary proceedings. There, is... a fine line between abuse and discipline...
