Dear Marcus;

son, I'm so sorry for not answering earlier. It takes me a whole pad of paper just trying to get this right and not all about me.

Your letter/Past had me in tears for hrs not believing my good fortune of you funding me. I won't get into it here but please know I've tried from this end for years with No Success 😞

To say I have a million questions thoughts and concerns wouldn't show enough. Just know for now anyway that the closest I've gotten to a copy of you was the 1-A Clinton St, Chelsea address. To which I sent Christmas card for the past 2 yrs without response. A former cellmate was released and searched on People Search for all of you. We of course have No Access to any type of computers what-so-ever!! SOCKS!

I am sure you yourself have an endless amount of things you want to share. As well with that said, I'm not all too familiar with all the comput blog sites and believe that were it well ^{by} posted ^{to} "Forever" for "Whoever". I would ask if you could write me at the Prison Directly? If you dont feel comfortable for whatever reason I'll understand and as you put it "But for now this will work". I'm only thinking of our families privacy. You do what you feel comfortable...

I know "I'm Sorry" will never be enough for any of you. But there hasn't been a day one that's gone by in 13 plus yrs. I haven't thought of all of you. Yes you are my son and I love you all. But I'm so ashamed of myself for all I did to all of you. I'm hurt too... Please write please

Love your Dad Ray BACK and GIVE ME A CHANCE
