Hey J.T., I really appreciate your comments and your help in checking out that web site. Also your ideas on magazines and books are really excellent. Unfortunately I have no way of getting magazines or newer books because I am indigent. But I'm not going to lose hope, I will keep trying to figure out a way to get this done. You take care of yourself and I hope you keep checking out my blog, I try to send in something new every month. Thanks again for looking out.

Peace ☺,
