

Being Gay is Not a Sin

Hello everyone, I would like to let you all know that being gay isn't a sin and I know this for a fact. You see I am a gay and God moves powerfully in my life everyday. It began quite simply with a miracle. You see, I was very severely mentally ill for almost 25 years. I was paranoid, heard voices, saw things, hurt myself and others, often became horribly depressed and would try to kill myself. I have been forcefully committed to psych hospitals many times and I received a S.S.I. disability check because I was so disturbed I couldn't work. So I wasn't certifiable, I was certified. I have told this testimony previously, it's on this site. After hours of prayer in which I demanded proof that God loves me, he healed me of my mental illness. I am still gay, my fantasies are of men only. I haven't taken any psych meds in over a year, no voices, paranoia, delusions or thoughts of hurting myself. When I masturbate, which I try to keep to a minimum, it's to guys and God still protects me from violence. I haven't been in a fight since God healed me and fights happen a lot in prison. I cannot hide what is in my heart and God still fills me with his spirit. I am attracted to men, yet God still talks to me and comforts. I wouldn't change if I could, yet when I call on God he still protects me from the attacks of the enemy. I'm gay and God knows it, yet he surrounds me with his love everyday. I want you to think about this. If any man says he knows the mind and will of God ask him to walk on water or heal the sick. If he can't then you know he is not as close to the father as he claims. However, I ask you to consider this, we (as gay men and women) should not be promiscuous, we should not give in to lust. God is love and if your relationship is founded on love it is in no way displeasing in the eyes of the father. "Lean not on your own understanding," but if you ask God about this and you do it with love in your heart for the Lord and all his children and with a willingness to be a true servant of God and all his children, he will answer. God loves us, all of us, period. May God bless you all.

Peace ☺
