

PRAY FOR ORLANDO

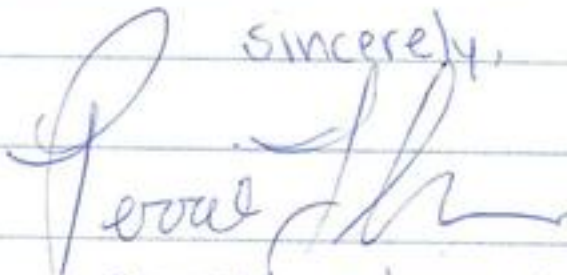

June 14, 2016

It has taken me a few days to attempt to digest this horrible tragedy. 49 lives lost to complete hatred. I have been unable to make any sense of this, obviously it makes no sense!

Nothing I can say will bring peace to the families impacted by this unimaginable tragedy, but I must send my deepest regards and promise to keep them in my prayers.

I will begin to close this, as I am still lost for words. But before I close, I do not agree with much of what Hilary Clinton says, but I totally agree with her statement that, "weapons of war have no place on our streets!"

stay Prayed UP!

Sincerely,

PERRIE THOMPSON
