

"WHAT I NEED"

I don't want pity or sympathy, I just need you to be empathic..... I don't want admiration, I just need to be respected..... I don't want lies, I need truth's..... I don't want followers, I need believers..... I don't just want to teach, I also need to be taught..... I don't want to bottle my fears, I need to conquer them.....

I don't want to stay down whenever I fall, I need to get back up..... I don't want to ignore the mistakes that I make, I need to learn from them..... I don't want to only forgive, I need to never forget..... I don't want to walk, I need to fly..... I don't want to shoot for the clouds, I need to shoot for the stars..... I don't want help, I need opportunities.....

I don't want to constantly profess my innocence, I need to prove it..... I don't want foes, I need friends..... I don't want to give up, I need to survive.
