Dear Jessenia 1227,

Thank you so much for the transcription of my Short Story 'I hear my name'. My hand writing sucks, I write like I've had a hand transplant. Nope 100% original parts. Since I've been incarcerated my sense of humor has grown up, it went from peek a boo to fart jokes and now its a toss up of will ferrel, carrot top just kidding, I love awkward humor. To me laughter allows sun light to reach the soul even when its at its darkest. Sorry went on a rant. Thank you for your kind words about my writing but most importantly signing off by saying thinking of you. even though I don't know you it was nice to know I exist between the bars. Thank you.

Sincerely

Roland Stoecker Jr
