

8-1-16

"Thank you"

I appreciate "you" more than you'll ever know, be patient with this, and watch the seed grow, it's called (floetry) but I prefer calling myself a "poet" and didn't know it, these words will express the unknown. Sometimes I wish I could write a song.....

To be honest I'm an open book I was kind of "shook" when I finally received a comment concerning my craft, I'm on to bigger and better things; who truly understand the "divine plan" or the grand scheme of things check out how the seasons change life is not a game, so don't gamble on the here an now plan for the future, I'm more than the "usual" thank you !!

inspired by (Courtney Cook)
11172
by Jonathan
White
Aka T/
I'm a poet
Citty

I must say that I am truly honored by

Jonathan
Whit

the favoritism you've projected toward my poem.

Aka P / Through Cutter

My Curiosity of the role it played in your interest has swayed me to ask you if you could expound on the affect it had on "you"; did it place you in remembrance or in the clutches of yearning or perhaps both?

I hope that my request is understood and and to forward I would like to gauge the quality of my writing with true substance explanatory responses. Thank you for the admiration you've shown my poem and I hope to further continue the positive affect this poem has induced.

Courtney

Cook 11172