

The Irony

I wrote an article talking about was it really rape or mishap? I shared how I was a 13 year old girl who was going with an older guy. How I chose to sleep with him. I didn't go to the police. I say oh he raped me. Then I said if there are someone who ~~is~~ has lied on someone falsely, you sent them to jail or prison. You need to go forth tell the truth. This woman is not the only teenager who has put an innocent person in jail or prison. There is a lot of people in jail or prison because someone yelled rape. It's time out for this foolishness for people being marked as sex offenders when they are not. Let's cover this story together. America I want you to think about what the word justice means. The dictionary says justice means: The quality of being just; fairness. The upholding of what is just esp. fair treatment and due reward in accordance with honor, standards or law. The administration and procedure of law. Subject: Rape conviction set aside after accuser admits lie. Brian Franklin served 21 years of life sentence for raping a 13 year old was freed on $10,000 Thursday after his accuser admitted that she lied. Highlights: Brian Franklin - a former Fort Worth police officer who served 21 years of life sentence for raping 13 year old (lied) but the woman now in her 30s ~~Some~~ Sam Quidan spokeswoman for the Tarrant County District Attorney's office said Thursday that the case against Franklin will be ~~set~~ sent to a grand jury to decide whether he should be indicted. We feel that the evidence

Still substantiates the claim against him, Jordan said Later adding, it was a police officer. We call on them to protect a child not cause harm to them. Franklin graduated from the police academy in the early 1980s and was an officer with Fort Worth police when he was accused in the attack. He was friends with the girl's father and lead convict almost entirely on the accuser testimony. *They never said anything about a DNA. Then you going to send this case back to a grand jury after the accuser admitted she lied. I don't care if he was a police. Equal justice for everyone. Is there are no DNA. How in the world do you even know for sure they had sex. The accuser already said she lied. This man has done 21 years off of a lie and state of Texas still trying to torment him for what. The person that needs to do something is the accuser who lied put a innocent man behind bars Nobody know what type of mental struggles this man probably has had in prison. All because somebody lied. Mr. Brian Franklin has a good attorney. But I feel Civil rights, human rights, and a cell should get involved with this man case. Because it's time to stop people from sending innocent people to prison. Anyone who willing commit perjury needs to spend ~~to~~ 10 to 20 years behind bars. Some people is found everyday in some part of the world innocent of a crime they didn't commit. A lot of them be done spent decades in prison. By the time they found innocent. By ^{that} time they are broken down physically and mentally because of all the things happen to them in prison. Somebody Help Mr. Brian Franklin
