

THE NORFOLK CHRONICLES

"You've Got To Be Shittin Me?"

* * * * *

- HOTTEST TEMPRETURES OF THE YEAR / SHUT DOWN THE WATER FOUNTAIN???

In the "you can't make this shit up" file we have to place this truly Norfolkque story. With the most oppressive tempretures of the year upon us the powers-that-be Brain Trust places a sign upon the Voc Ed Building Water Fountain that the bubbler will be "out of bounds" due to "Water Restrictions. Now every talking head on the TV News is warning folks to "stay hydrated" and "keep cool", but at the abuse factory that is MCI NorfolkWorld/WallyWorld they feel it is appropriate to shut down the only water fountain in a locked building where men cannot leave and get a drink anywhere else. These people are beyond cruel but yet are charged with "rehabilitation", it can never work.

- MEDICATION LINE IS LIKE "ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST"

Jack Nicholson would have been proud of one NorfolkWorld convict who was not afraid to tell the Med Line copper that he was a fuckin' liar. You see they are supposed to run K.O.P. (keep on person) medication line for a half-hour so men can get their medication cards from the nurse. Now the operative word there is "supposed" as they almost never do. Well the other day one old con came in and the cop told him he was too late. The con told him "How the fuck can I be late? It's 20 past one and movement started at 1:05 pm. The cop told him "KOP is only a half-hour." and the con told him "No shit Sherlock, but it has only been 15 minutes since movement." The cop told him that he would not be getting his meds and the con told him what he would do to him if he did not get them. The next thing you know the nurse brought the meds and the con was laughing in the cop's face.

- TOO HOT TO EXERCISE / GREAT K-2 SMOKING WEATHER! / NO SHOWERS THOUGH

The past couple of days the Brain Trust here at NorfolkWorld has made announcements over the loud speaker that there was to be no physical exercise in the yards. No such announcement was made about smoking the synthetic marijuana "K-2" and just as it is everyday here men were puffing away like a Rastafarien who just hit the Power Ball! Both yards reeked of burning "Tea/K-2" and men with brake light colored eye whites roamed the camp preparing for their next violent crime in your neighborhood. Now a man like me who does not use drugs was just out walking the yard, minding my own business and looking to get out of this nut house, but I could not come back and take a shower as that would be a felony. K-2 yes, showers no. Typical NorfolkWorld logic.

- FOOD SERVICES DIRECTOR PROMOTED TO GOOD HUMOR MAN

Our Food Services Director here, The Green Chickenhead, was just given an honorary promotion to "Correctional Good Humor Man". You see this beacon of correctional wisdom got some warehouse to donate cases of Ice Cream Sandwiches to the prison after their expiration date ran out. Great deal for the warehouse as they can now deduct the full value of the Good Humor Bars from their taxes and we get to eat stale ice cream. The Green Chickenhead seems a hero but we here at Free Speech Central say; "Button up your shirt Green Chickenhead. You're heart is falling out."

More To Come...
