

Dear Rita,

08/13/16

Howdy! How are you? I got your response a couple weeks ago.

I don't know what the "addls" on my blog means. You're the only person who ever responds.

I bet it's nice to be home.

I'm so sorry to hear about the restrictions on your visit with George. That's awful & it's so unfair after you traveled all that way. I get a socialist newsletter that comes out just twice a year, but it's never been a problem. I also can't believe that you had to visit through a window. I'm sure it was hard that you couldn't even give him a hug.

Things here are OK. I've had some ups & downs, but I'm managing.

Take care of yourself!

Much love,
