Hello Dctober, thank you so very much for your comment. I'm glad that it touched you and it's nice to know someone out there is reading it. God will give you the revelation you need if we just trust in him and believe. All things are possible with God on our side ☺. Please keep reading, I try to post something at least once a month. God Bless you and keep you all of your days.

P.S.

Keep me and my friend Henry in your prayers and you will always be mine

Peace and Love ☺,
Downy
