

TRUMP vs. Clinton

Death for the U.S.A.

Hello everyone, I would like to talk about the Presidential Election if you don't mind. Let me start by saying I love the people of this country but all aspects of our government has been betraying us for over 30 years and we the citizens should be ashamed. Not of our flag but of ourselves because we didn't/don't have the courage to put a stop to it. I'm not calling for violence, I'm calling for will power. Let me explain, in the 1980's the U.S.A. had one of the top 5 public education systems in the world. What is it ranked now? Look it up, it's available on the net. When you see how far it has dropped you will be shocked and offended. Now ask yourself how this happened, it's simple. Because we let it, when your city and state governments told you they needed to raise your taxes a few pennies on the dollar to keep the schools up, we had a fit. When we realized that lobbyists not only had access to the government officials who make our laws but are chased by them, we didn't think it was a big deal. Now most, if not all, of our lawmakers are in the pockets of the mega companies the lobbyist work for. The middle class used to be called the backbone of our great country, now most American families live from pay check to pay check. There are people starving on the streets while tons of food rot on the docks and in the warehouses. My God, what have we done to ourselves. The poor are paying an insane amount of the taxes our government collects every year, while the rich pay a tiny fraction. How can this make sense to anyone? Look, we are not stupid, just lazy. People used to work hard to make sure their kids could have a better life than them, now they just do it to try to keep them alive with a little something to eat. Now you are getting ready to vote but it's not for who you think will run the country the best, it's for who you think won't be as bad as the other one. So, our country is broken but what can we do? Let us start by making a statement, let us tell them this won't do and enough is enough. Go to the polls and write on your ballot, None of the Above. Vote for no one, for any office. These people are not interested in truly working for us so why should we hire them? The people who could really help us won't run because our elections are a circus, like wrestling on T.V. but with worse actors, he said-she said mudslinging contest, low rate soap operas. Wake up people before it's too late. Our country is on life support and they want to pull the plug. Let us not settle for Bonnie and Clyde but instead let us insist on the best. There is another Lincoln, FDR, JFK, Reagan out there waiting for us to shout, "enough of these silly Games, let's get this thing back on track! Let us stand up and do something to make our forefathers proud. More importantly, let us do something to see that our children have a better life than we have. It won't be easy, we will have to show courage and work hard and we will have to keep a close eye on those who we put in power. But won't it be worth it so that our kids can stand up for the national anthem and show respect for our flag because they have enough of an education to know what they mean. We can do this together. "United we stand but divided we fall. God Bless you and keep you all the days of your life.
