

Britt 86,

Thank you for commenting on the poem entitled "Imagine That!!!" I wrote that poem in the poetry class that I've taught and the topic was if you had the opportunity to talk to the kids what would you say?

So that poem is what I would say to them to tell them about the prison life. Thank you once again. Please feel free to read more poetry on my blog I've just sent out 35 more under my title: "Penitentiary Chances."

The goal is to have all 900 poems posted on my blog hopefully in an effort to capture the eye of a publisher! Thanks a million
