ameri-KKKa your prison/slave plantations are Universities of criminal higher learning from which your enslaved graduate. Going to jail a man learn many-many things from others, older, hardened criminals; and all he learns from society's vindictive, revengeful behavior is that his crime was being caught. So now he must learn not to get caught. The mindset of the criminal need be changed; biochemistry, medicine, psychiatry can help. We have many resources in which to change a criminal's behavior; service, your respect and knowledge as to how to survive is needed.

When we punish a person it only hardens them, our rationale may be whatsoever we like but the results is the same; there is a difference between results and rationalization. Rationalization is a very cunning intellectual device it hides the real reason of our actions; giving our actions a false facade, but looks absolutely "fair" on the surface.

Criminals! Society cannot tolerate you so it will punish you; but it also rationalizes that it is punishing you for your own good to make you better. But in all these centuries ^{who} ever bothered to examine if good or change is ever achieved; government officials in the name of society have been punishing criminals for thousands of years and yet criminals have not been transformed through punishment. Crimes goes on increasing, prisons increase, prisoners increase, hiring more police, prosecutors, judges; a lucrative multi-billion dollars enterprise all in the name of JUS-US!. The true definition of insanity, absolutely absurd; more criminality.

What is wrong here? The criminal can also feel that this is a rationalization that he isn't being punish for the wrong that he has done he is being punished because he has been caught. So now he knows that he has to become smarter, more devious. He was only caught because he wasn't ^{ALERT ENOUGH} next time he will prove himself, more intelligent and more slicker; than he wont get caught like so many others who have evade capture. The only possible thing that a person learns from slavery, prison-punishment is not to be caught: THAT WAS HIS ONLY CRIME!

SOCIETY IS SO-SO WRONG: Human are a process a continuous process of evolving and evolution; we will either teach them or bear will their ill-behavior.

Severe and continuous punishment of long duration perverse and deforms the psychology and humanity of a person.

When a prisoner comes out of prison he is a much better criminal ~~and~~ so he thinks, better trained and educated than before; all thanks to our government officials paid for by unthinking un-caring society-a-large.. This man has been forced to live with experienced criminals to include the guards, with much advanced adeptness and knowledge who knew much and having suffered and endured many years of torture and abuse; having been deceiving and far advance on the path of crime.; now he has vowed never to be caught; NOBODY IS STOPPED BY PUNISHMENT.

But greedy, unscrupulous, opportunistic government agents at the ready at the behesting of a sheeplike, cowardly society and certain fascist, right-wing hate groups go on urging that punishing a person will stop the mindset of the criminal. BOTH ARE WRONG, as reality, history and statistics so vividly reveals. These sadistic, Special Interest Hate Groups have only one interest: REVENGE, THEIR SADISTIC PLEASURE. And the criminal also sees those criminals who punish, abuse and torture him as criminals. because a criminal mind knows and understands the actions and mindset of another criminal.

But now this emotionally and physically tortured and wounded, bitter, hate filled hardened criminal thinks, okay, I will bid my time and then one day I will get even and take revenge. Now there is a serious conflict between the punisher and the punish-ee; an endless revolving cycle.. Our thinking is wrong what is being done to the prisoner is totally unrelated to any resolution of the problem. he need not be thrown in a cage, dehumanized and animalized, mistreated, tortured and abused and treated less than human. He has to be put in a psychiatric hospital, treated medically, humanely, respectfully; it is not his fault.

Many centuries ago when people were thought to be criminals they were thrown into an insane asylum, beaten and tortured thinking that would drive the evil out and make them sane again.. It has only been about two-hundred years ago that it occurred to anyone that these people were not criminals, they were suffering from a certain mental disease.

Criminals! Beating, enslaving and torturing them for decades; you are simply being idiotic; no one is born a criminal. The nurturing and the environment in which he was brought up is what has made him a criminal. Of course many exemplary individuals will disagree pointing out their hardship⁵ and how he turned out alright and did not engage in criminality. Be that as it may we are dealing with the majority, the average individual and not the so-called exceptional individual. Once a person's mind starts becoming criminalized, you will have to change his whole way of thinking. Oppressing him, abusing him, starving him, beating him, locking him up in a cage like an animal - it does nothing but reinforce the mindset of his criminality; that when he is released he will be a confirmed, hardened criminal.

COMMENTARY(1): Just watch the things that people are doing as if whatever they are doing with the attitude that it is the most intelligent and right thing to be doing. As if they know the secret to the path to truth and the "truth" is that they do not know and nor does anyone else about the unknown and unknowable. Moreover, if sooner or later everything everywhere will be transformed or reformed, can the word/s/ "purpose", "right or wrong" ultimately mean anything as we now know it to be? I think not. In the final analysis according to what is universally known it really doesn't matter, nor make a difference.

COMMENTARY(2): god, gods and religions the world's ugliest, greatest invented hypocrisy; all these childish absurdities in all these times up to now have not helped humanity in solving one single problem and; they have been doing this service business for thousands of years. The poor are still poor and growing poorer. The sick are there, aged, all kinds of diseases are there, children are not being cared for; crime increasing.. Simple put our created gods and religions have failed us in every way and in every aspect. The corrupt are still corrupt and the evil are still evil; in thousands of years of this "pie-in-the-sky" worshipping and praying to an invisible god, nothing has changed.

Every year there are more and more heinous-horrific crimes and atrocities being committed against our selves and humanity.

Strangely..prisons/slavery goes on increasing and religious leaders who supposedly speak to the invisible sky god lie and think that they are making a difference in the minds and hearts of mankind.

COMMENTARY(3): Zooprison, enslavement of a human being behind the Iron Curtain. This is not the way to transform a person, this is the way to stunt, deform and pervert him humanity.
