I enjoy reading African-American history books writing poetry listening to Rhythm and Blues R&B music / ~~modern~~ Today's Country music. I've lost a lot of my family members to (Death) since this incarceration state sentence.

So it's hard and lonely for me inside this hell-hole and, I don't like or trust these inmates or security staff.

What I'm looking for in a Pen-pal is someone who is selfless, non-judgmental sincere, honest, outgoing someone who will correspond with me on a regular basis and, not run in and out my life.

Friends at The Between the Bars Organization please post this advertisement on the BLOG post for me it's vital.

I've been writing for you all since December of 2010 five years now. And I need and want outside support again in my life. I'm helpless at this moment.
