

A World Lost in Evil and Suffering Pg. 1

Hello everyone, I would like to talk to you about the horror of the world we all live in. Please listen, life is so dark and it seems that no matter what we try to do to make things better, it just gets worse. Everywhere we look it seems all we see is pain and suffering and we think that nothing we could ever do will make a difference. I want to tell you, please don't let the Devil lie to you. Take it from someone who was lost in that world. I was sexually abused from the age of 4 to 11, literally tortured, bullied and beaten by all the other kids, ~~and~~ repeatedly told and truly believed I was worthless. My mom's love gave me hope. There are children out there who are crying because they don't think anyone can ever love them. The people who are hurting them and each other are beaten and broken also. I know this because I was one of them too, sex with teenagers, beating up dudes, drugs and orgies at the time I didn't see my own evil. I'm begging you to please love us, love each other. The Devil is dancing in our pain and drinking the tears of our suffering and smearing a healthy (or I should say unhealthy) coating of hopelessness on all of us. God loves all of us so much and his heart is breaking as he sees us living in pain and suffering. Every prostitute, drug addict and drug dealer, homeless person, criminals of every type, bullies and sex addicts, they are all lost and broken children of God. We are ultimately responsible for each other. So will you lift us up and doing that bring a smile to God's face or will you turn your back on us and be the cause of another ~~falling from~~ tear falling from Father God's eye? We need your love because only through your love, will we hold on long enough for God to be God and love us into eternity. The Savior died so that all of humanity could find their way back into the loving embrace of the Father. What will we do? Will we truly be the light of the world and glorify God in what we do, in the way we live? We must remember that all of Heaven rejoices when someone lost returns to God's love. I pray that the Holy Spirit convicts you to lift someone up and bring a smile to Father God's face and some love and hope into the life of one of our lost brothers and sisters. Love is an action word, anyone can say "I love you" but are you willing to prove it. I love God AND I love you AND I promise you that I am going to sacrifice my life for you so that may know the love God has for you, through me. If there is ever anything you need from me just let me know, someone to talk to, a place to live, food, money or a shoulder to cry on. I am here for you, because that is what God asks of me. God Bless you and keep you all of your days.
