

NGR verses Chapter 5.

Michael Stewart - Open Doors

As wisdom would settle
write your soul
into the soul of the sun
you shall know no doom
the phenomenon of you
bears unique gifts
opener of the door to beyond
be for us as we
breathe nearer to the next
forthcoming

Christian Taylor - Guide Us

Our hidden duality
causing no harm
our secret conflict resolution inherent life we find you guiding us toward
wild energies to taste
life's sustaining freedom

Ezell Ford: Again

Conceive again
yourself again
egg of the sky
one has seeded
darker thy skin
passing ever the
closer to the sun
we continue
to meet again
conceive yourself
again

Renisha McBride: Indestructable

Indestructable
our greiving weisted
a secret nemore
for death herself
a mythical illusion
find us again
upon your return
my friend, our stranger
those animals
those foster children
our lovers, my song
return to us
Indestructable

-xyzst

Melice Green: Exalted Spirit

Dwell not between
inner knowledge and doubt
exalted spirit
our tree of life
initiated self-potter
letting nothing
separated you
from earth
as the way to the heavens
leads to the realm of earth
within your very soul

Andy Lopez - Leaving War Starving

Moral values fell
an intelligent heart rises
the spirit soars
tension bows to rest Conflict is no match for peace anger and hatred will be divorced as knowledge and illumination remain so married forever with love as their children
our family of the beyond
leaving war starving
