 I can see the bright blue sky, feel the sun's rays warming my skin and the sand between my toes. I can hear the waves rolling onto shore. I look up and see the cliff house, all in your smile.

Art is human's most advanced achievement - there are drawings on cave walls that go back a hundred thousand years. Art touches the human soul.

The health people came today and gave us Flu shots to those of us that wanted them anyway. I can't believe the number of people who think the flu shot will give them the flu :- dumb A.S :-

Did you know laughing ~~can~~^{can} cause you to withstand pain longer and laughing along with friends relieves pain better than laughing alone :-)

Got a hang nail, it got infected - they won't even give you a band-aid here without a two week wait and paying $5.00

Painting to me is like the blues, it only gets better I'm working on building a better me for the other side. Have I been a blessing to anyone? :-)

Happy birthday to my brother Tim - love you little brother.
 A lot of people sure miss you - I'm just one of them :-)

Poetry and good short fiction/non-fiction are hard to come by here so I treasure each book or poetry & story magazines I come upon.

The problem may not always be my fault, but I am always responsible for my response.

Humans are truly designed to lean on each other, like that song, 'Lean On Me.' People tend to have at least one person by their side.

It has dawned on me that no matter how much I love you yesterday - I always have more love for you today :-)

As an artist I choose things to paint that say something to me, that touches my insides.

Life is nothing without someone to share it with :-)
