- DEBATE THIS! MEDIA "FEAR FACTOR" STRIKES NORFOLK HARD

Well the Brain Trust here and at the Central Gulag Office again showed their true colors of cowardice by cancelling the debate that was scheduled between the Norfolk Education Committee and Boston University students. The DOC saw that some so called "high profile" prisoners were going to be engaging in the debate and decided that they would do all within their evil power to derail the event and hopefully piss off Boston University so bad that they would decide not to come back. This is what they do these prison purveyors of evil; they crush hope and smash anything good. The concept that a man is "sent to prison 'as' punishment, not 'for' punishment" is truly lost on them. Instead of defending the right of high profile prisoners to be rehabilitated the Gulag Suits hide them away and ensure that they are filled with so much anger, so much resentment of the system, that they will undoubtedly commit future crimes, or if serving life, will rot from the inside out in this system of hopelessness and revenge. Men attempt to change, using vehicles like the Debate Team or The Lifers' Group, and the Modern Nazi's do everything within their power to crush those efforts and relocate the men to the "bread lines" of the modern gulag. Hordes of Captains, Lietenants, and seagents roam the cellblocks with no defined job or purpose; they are just a drain on taxpayer dollars. There are supervisors supervising supervisors, guards guarding guards, and the blind idiots leading the blind idiots up to the state troth to drink their blood nector. There is [No Debate] that these folks are evil; live here for a short period of time and you will see that. There is [No Debate] that the prison system is a jobs program for layabout nepotism. There is [No Debate] that your streets are far less safe due to how these evil gulags are run. And there is [No Debate] that it is all by design and that until we expose the madness and hold the real perpetrators accountable we are ALL responsible. Debate this!

- GREEN CHICKENHEAD AUDITS "HAIR NETS" AND INMATE WORKERS

The prison announced this week that the Audit Standards Symbol Award (ASS Award) will go to none other than our own Food Services Director The Green Chickenhead. This award is given to the gulag staff member who goes above and beyond on the DOC Audit. The Green Chickenhead made certain he berated every lowly kitchen worker he could to "wear that hair net!", while he picked pieces of chicken stew out of the pans and ate them. He screamed at men "Where is your beard net?", while he used his bare dick-beaters to poke a donated doughnut to ascertain it's freshness. The Audit Team was impressed that the Chickenhead actually chewed the bananas before he ate them as there was a rumor circulating that he was deep-throating them in his office while the radio played the Village People's tune "YMCA. It was a unanimous vote to give Billy The ASS Award and along with it comes a gift certificate for a pair of Lavender Cotton Loafers in which The Green Chickenhead can don a glittered Michael Jackson glove to do the moonwalk at his upcoming retirement party. Another Rumor says Tommy Ficco will be the Male Stripper for the event! It's only fitting! Congratulations to the perfect ASS recipient.
