All lives matter period simply because our Creator made us for a unique purpose and blended we become the most brilliant mixtures ever imagined looking at love in it's most purest form folks a smile and a warm feels the same regardless of color or race were on pace to self destruct by default, so please pray someone push stop and remind to the 60, 70, way of life peace, love, happiness it's nothing wrong with being different that the grand scheme; that's why All lives matter by ~~prayer~~
