

Gods' Love And the LGBTQ Community

Hello everyone, I know I've spoken about this topic before but I've been listening to some christian talk radio with my cellie and it has become apparent that some people are using the title of christian to persecute us. I am gay, I don't understand what the mystery of why I'm attracted to guys and others aren't is but I'm gay and have been since puberty. I'm also a follower of Jesus and a worshipper of the Almighty God but I'm still gay and I don't understand the mystery of why God loves me but he does. God proved he loves me almost 2 yrs ago when he miraculously healed me of a serious mental illness. He did not say "I will heal you but you have to stop being gay". He healed me when I cried out "God has to prove he loves me!" and the voices stopped after 23 yrs of constant torment. I know what the bible says - abomination - yet he healed me and he shows me everyday he loves me. I'm still gay, I don't even try to stop being attracted to dudes. I wouldn't even know how but he still loves me. If God wanted to change me he would. I have prayed many times for God to change anything about me that doesn't please him because I love Father God with everything I am and here I am still gay. I can't explain it but the simple fact remains that God loves me. I know that there are those out there that hate me and would kill if they could and that many more will hate me for what I'm saying. To them I would say, "I love you and I forgive you because God loves me even though I'm gay and I know he loves you too even though you hate me." Who am I to think badly of anyone or anything that God loves. To everyone in the LGBTQ community I am here to tell you that God loves you ALL, as you are with no strings attached. Don't let what these poor misguided people are saying keep you from the loving embrace of Father God, sadly they are allowing the Devil use them to keep you from the glories of Gods' love. On behalf of our most merciful and loving Father God, I officially invite you all to spend eternity in Heaven with me ~~God~~ and God for the greatest Thanksgiving celebration ever. He has had a place set for you since before time began. I am not ashamed to admit that God and I will cry if you don't come. God Bless you and keep you all of your days.
