

PREPARING FOR A "D.O.C." CHRISTMAS!

All the octogenarians were tucked tight into their hospital beds with visions of adult diapers and catheters dancing in their head. When down the chimney came a mightly load, flies buzzing and putrid odor immense, gift wrapped for Scary Sherry, Tommy Turco, and the Green Chickenhead. No candy canes or fruit cake (except for Scary Sherry) was to be had, only a ripe reaking feces for them who have been bad. The Nazi's who destroy the safety of the people, got a big crap timbling down their steeples. God forgive them for the lies that they tell, but we will all cheer as they all go straight to hell!!!
