

ABSOLUTELY STUNNING!

November 9, 2016

Nobody wants to say it but I will, America has just revealed its true colors. Donald Trump being elected President shows just how immoral so many Americans are. Trump has disrespected minorities, muslims and women. Then millions of Americans go out and elect Donald Trump President. This demonstrates america has a disconnected democracy. It further illustrates america is not great, nor loving, and is in fact a country that is desperately craving the return of white supremacy!
That's just how I feel, so disappointed right now!

Sincerely,

PERRIE THOMPSON
