Hello Friends -

It has been ~~for~~ too long since my last post. ^{and} let me begin by posting a "notice of my address change," and follow it up with a COMMITMENT to share some of the thoughts and ideas sparked by current events, as well as some of my hopes and dreams for the future.

I also look forward to any feedback on some of the posts - for ~~for~~ too long, it seems, I've been practicing the art of no-response.

Until next time —

"May the music of The Meadow, with its songs of silver streams - bring sunshine to the paths you walk, and magic to your dreams."
