heismyoneandonly31015: Hi, how's it going? I'm so sorry for your loss. Thank you so much for your best wishes. I'm very grateful for them. The fact is that it is hard for all of us. We sometimes don't realize how hard it is on one another. If there is anything I can do to make things even just a little easier for you please don't hesitate to let me know.

Rich.
