

A THANKSGIVING 2016 PRAYER

God thank U 4 waking me up at 9:24am. Thank U that the 1st voice I heard was Curt telling me 2 go 2 Property 2 pick up my Hobby Order. Thank U that it was delivered 2day ,I mean ready 4 pick up. I thought that it might be next week sometime. after all who would work Thanksgiving, in property of all places. Thank U 4 c/o's Quick servant heart & the way he serves this gated community.. Thank U that none of my items from Marcus were on backorder. Thank U that I can most definitely finish the stuffed animals before Christmas & a few chains & bracelets 4 the Vivian Foundation. Amen. Thank U 4 callin me 2 new ministrys. the cake 1 worked a number on my heart especially as my pride & ego crept in as well as bitterness as people had a sense of entitlement attitude. This perspective broke my heart & made me more selfish. Had me looking like who returns the favor? Soon I was doing it all outta obligation & not love. Whew! This also helped my heart be battered. Yikes. Thanks 4 this crochet ministry since I was employed & learned how 2 do it back in like 2006 I've really enjoyed it. Even when I did it 4 free in Boscobel. It gives me a chance 2 express my self creatively as well as give back 2 my community. Plus I get 2 give kids who R less fortunate COOL items that R the envy of their friends. U know what I mean. Growing up poor I hated that everything I bought or was given reflected that I was poor. Nobody puts Jordan's in Value Village. Nope Just purple Badger sweaters, that should be red & white. Thank U that I have something constructive & of eternal value 2 do. Amen. God I ask that U help me find the teddy bear patterns & create new ones. Amen. Thanks 4 the heart idea & the smiley face, though I have 2 get some yellow yarn. I suppose I can use other colors. No rule that says the smiley face has 2 be yellow. Thank U 4 allowing me 2 keep the broken hook till the new one gets here from Union..

God my typewriter is broken but I praise U NEhow. It's my own fault I cursed it last night while typing stuff up 4 Jones. The moment I said "God. I hate this," I knew there were repercussions. Now the factory settins R all off. But I just stay hopeful that it's a sign that a secretary is on the way. Lord knows that I'm not the best typist. Nor do I enjoy typing up my own stuff let alone NEone elses. Definitely not gifted in that area. God help me deal with the frustration that naturally comes when I deal with Jones. I know he needs more patience. Patience which I'm very plow on at this point in my walk. Yikes. I just get highly upset that people know how 2 be unappreciative when U serving them. I KNOW U KNOW ALL ABOUT HOW THAT FEELS. So who am I 2 cry & complain. U deal with billions of reuest & complaints from the ungrateful. Yikes. Don't know how U do it, I tip my hat 2 U. There's no God like U. Thank U that I'm not God, cause everyday I fail at being me-it seems.

Just like with ministry I got the wisdom & desire 2 tell others but not the love. hence my bitterness & angry outburst at the sin & foolishness around me. The chip on my shoulder at Gorak, Steve, TJ, & countless others who run around cryin, screamin, complaining, gambling, marketing murder, etc.. all the day long. God I'm not even strong enuff 2 seperate the sin from the sinner.

Yikes. That's how I know I still got some growing 2 do. It's my own fault cause I surrendered my joy while entertaining lustful thoughts of being FREE with all that it entails. Yikes. Hence the lost of sleep & the loss of PEACE :(PEACE that I would love 2 have back. God I can't get through 2day with out sinful incident unless U should keep me from satan himself. Amen. 4give me 4 not taking full fledged advantage of the prayer closet. My heart is that broken.that hardened. Sorry. Help me 2 think on U 2day.

Thank U 4 Ur perfect timing which allowed me 2 meet Dan by accident on yesterday. What's weird is soon he said my name,my 1st response was,"who U need me 2 get?" (I'm messed up) When he mentioned somebody visiting him I thought he was talking bout Dennis...or somebody from the "local" church. Thanks 4 letting it dawn on me that he said,"Katie Scheller just visited me & told me 2 tell U high & she owes U a letter..." WOW!!! & 2 think I was wondering if she got my last letter,as I didn't get NE mail from a person again yesterday. So broken was I I even thought 2 take my name of the mailing list in order 2 crucify anxiety & disappointment,& not let the mail list have dominion over me. Apparently I'm more selfish & self-centered than I cared 2 realize or even admit. Yikes. I know U can & will help me overcome said vice. Thanks 4 the encouragement from Josh 2 stay focused & not let prison get 2 me. 4give me 4 being bitter I just hate that people "like it here" & R even tryin 2 make it better. aaaaaaaaaaaaaawwwwwwwwwwwww!!!God I need 2 experience Ur LOVE on 2day so I can lovingly tell others about Ur life changing LOVE. Amen. Right now I wanna minister but don't have the compassion or loving voice needed 2 do it. Yet I have the zeal. Odd. Guess that's Y U made me a writer. I don't know. God help me write the books U have ordained for me 2 write. Thank U that people who hear the titles want 2 buy 'em right now,though they not finished.. Oh yeah thank U 4 bringing 2 my remembrance the name of the Ice-Cube song & the album that it's on. It helps my essay/memoir come2 a conclusion,well that chaper n being dead 2 me NEway.

Thank U 4 Curt N his prayin us in. Help us walk in blessedness. Thank U 4 Joe's joy & Christlikeness & surprise drink. Guess I'm gone be wired up on coffe,cocoa,sugar,hot chocolate N whatever else. Thank U 4 let'n me see CB & hear of the blessing he caught at parole & that he on his way out of here. I praise U 4 his release. God be with the guy who did 24 years 4 something he didn't do. Let him know that U can take care of him as he seeks 1st the Kingdom. God bless Rudy & the purpose 4 which U had me see the pictures at his book signing & had Marcus ask me 2 write a book 4 his cousin 2 consider publishing. The memoir came 2 mind. Thanks 4 CITY KID & it being written in the style I want 2 write it in. Amen. God bless & HAPPY THSANKSGIVING.
