

Hello Friends!

December 6th 2016.

People What do you think about elect

President Donald Trump? He'll be <sup>the</sup> 45th one. He Was Elected on November 8th 2016. Which was a big mistake if you ask me. But, it didn't surprise me at all.

Keep in mind People his Wife is a Ex-Porn Star. She's got nude photos of herself flowing around out there in Playboy magazines and on the internet too.

I'm quite sure. Now! What examples these two Creatures will be leading by running a Country here in America? Not good ones. I've heard Donald Trump speak on the radio and, I've also did read things he did say in different Publications. Born (NYC) on 6-14-46. He makes No Sense to me he's Not fit Physically or mentally to run the American People in The White House or a Country for that matter. "And he HATE Inmates!". That's how you know the World has gone insane outside and inside. I feel like he's racist and a bigot he's for the rich with power and, damn the poor. He's a billionaire I heard on my radio here FM 88.1. It was said in the media he got caught groping females in the past which he denied. I believe it though. He looks and sounds like a snake to me. I'm against all politics/politicians but, I will state the facts No doubt about it.

I'm anti-government. As long as this Corrupt government system is standing in America. There will be only two things it's built on and that is Capitalism and Imperialism. Never forget that "American People" out here. And it breaks my heart!

I'm all for A Revolution here in America. It's needed desperately. I'm open for Questions and Comments. An Intern please post this Submission on the BLOG. In solidarity, appy Holidays Friends!
