- NORFOLK DEBATE TEAM BEATS BOSTON COLLEGE FULTON DEBATE SOCIETY!

On Saturday, December 3, 2016 The Norfolk Debate Team waged a debate war on the topic of Global Warming and a Greenhouse Tax against Boston College's Fulton Debate Society. It was a real barnburner of a contest with point / counter-points, jabs and left hooks, and a verbal sparring which has been missing from the prison system for far too long. I am very proud to report that the final results were: Fulton Debate Society 86.2 points and Norfolk Debate Team 86.8! NORFOLK WINS! Fuckin' Aye!!

For me, a convict in attendance, I was so proud to see prisoners showing the outsiders in attendance that we are not the animals the Department of Corruption portrays us as. These fine men showed they are rehabilitated, and with no help of the prison!

In typical DOC fashion they attempted to keep the media out, but a stalwart reporter from WBUR pushed his agenda and was able to get in to cover the event. I spoke to him personally and thanked him and he told me just how much of an uphill battle it was to get in to cover the event. There was another important victory scored at the event: Prisoners 1, DOC 0! Fuck em'!

- YouTube TAKES OVER THE "TOUGHEST BEAT IN THE STATE"

Now for anyone who wonders why they masses at NorfolkWorld are smoking K-2 Synthetic Marijuana all day on the cellblocks, without any harrassment from the guards, is because the guards are now glued to the newly available YouTube videos that have at each of their Pig Stations. P.R.E.A. Sex Violations? To hell with that we can watch an Arab jump out of a tree with a bomb attached to a vest. Drug use in the cells? No problem; we are content to watch a skateboarder try to jump over a parked Harley Davidson. Homebrew parties in the P-1 and P-2 Units? Don't sweat it we can watch Gronk spiking the ball over and over at a Miami Dolphin's game. The "Toughest Beat in the State", as the guard's union likes to tout, has now added mindless video watching to napping, grabassing, and drug smuggling to its criteria. The overpaid babysitting dregs are now video critics and childish humor officianatos. Light up some K-2, Sniff a little suboxone, crack a bottle of fermented fruit, and join the modern rehabilitation model that is the Department of Corruption; and especially here at WallyWorld. You've lost the ship Tommy T.

- SCARY SHERRY TO SUPERVISE RECENTLY RELEASED MUSLIM BROTHERS

After the FBI forced the DOC to admit that there was no jihadist cell forming at WallyWorld they had to let the Muslim brothers they locked up out of the hole. Don't worry though they have assigned the Old Bag Lady herself, Scary Sherry, snakes in her hair, to keep a crosseyed eye on them. There exists a great chance they will disappear, just like any proposals that are submitted to her do, but I'm just sayin'! Glad to have the brothers out.

More To Come...
