Glad you feeling these Verses.
Frankie is about to put all 5 Chapters in one zine. It reads like a cold eulogy, and we even added an encomium at the end, and you are so right, this is some deep work, probably because they came from a deep place somewhere in the universe.

Frankie is requesting that you printout this entire 1st Chapter and Rush it to him, he's all like a mad scientist working in a lab with boiling flasks, and electro charges everywhere ☺, yelling, "It's alive," lol.

Hopefully soon, the Multiverse will give us some soothing verses for some of the falling police officers in America, as a result of Blue on Black blood exchange in the streets, like those 5 cops in Dallas was truly victims, and what we do is primarily victim support oriented, so it's only right that we keep it one hundred.
