

Zach,

Thank you for responded to my post on my Blog page about the famous prisoners at my prison. I think most of the high profile prisoners are treated better by the C.O.'s & other inmates. They have lots of friends. Lyle Mendendez has a special on T.V. Jan 5th - about him & his brother. Lyle lives in my building on "B" yard. He's in good shape & plays a lot of soccer. He also gives a lot of his money to the prison & C.O.'s union. He buys recreation equipment for the inmates. He's also the President of the MAC committee, (INMATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE) - talks to the Warden to help the inmates out with problems & solutions. The heir to the "MAX FACTOR" fortune is named Andy, He's on "C" yard (I was there 6 years, "B" yard 4 years), I use to play Volleyball with him - he played almost every day. Stayed in good shape but never used deodorant (according to his cellie's). The son<sup>Esteban Munoz</sup> of the ex-speaker of the house of CALIFORNIA has already paroled - he also lived in my bldg - he was young & handsome & athletic & very popular with the other inmates. "Tex" Watson (Charles Manson co-defendant) teaches bible study classes in the "B" yard chapel. I was his student but at 1st I didn't know who he was. He's actually a very friendly, nice guy. Well that's all for now. Take care & write back.
