

MH

Thanks for the book of stamps bro — much better than another chunk of coal in my X-mas stocking! Yea... in fact I was beginning to think you probably blew it off again due to some dope-friend excuse or another, so it was a surprise which I'm grateful to receive. Thank you.

It was news to me that Mrs MH has been in Denver, "dying of cancer"? And now "I want her back", you say? Of course you do... lest you may have to scrutinize your own character flaws — if there's no one else around who you can project your frustrations upon.

Dude! you dont have any guns in the house, do you? I've gotta give you a Reality check — for my own sake, as well as yours. Shoot me... shoot yourself... go postal on a bunch of innocent sheeple — what ever you do or dont do, is always entirely up to you! Tho you are very proficient in the art of blaming others, you must admit.

Are you ready? REMEMBER when you met me? Was it an answer to your prayers? Yup, be mindful what you pray for, huh? Funny! My prayer was Is 6:8 — "Send me". REMEMBER how many cretins signed my upside-down flag? "Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not", was my only mission bro, "lest they see... and hear... and understand — and convert, and be healed". Apparently it remains my mission, in accord with Is 6^{9/11}.

Look! I know your proclivity for casting the first stone whenever anyone confronts you with the obvious, so step away from your stone-pile! And REMEMBER! That is the only purpose of this Reality check, okay? REMEMBER why you prayed for a Prophet to appear to help you bak then? REMEMBER what you said to me, which prompted me to ask you for your box of meds? Tell me bro, did you reserve your right to cling (trust, rely) on to any of them at that time — or did you honestly give up every last form of Pharmakēia? Didn't I point out the entire menu of Gal 5^{16/26}?

Let go of the stone dude! Chief among sinners am I... reaping what I sow too. You know His Word (Jn 11) was the white horse (Rev. 19:11) I rode up there on ☺. And now look at me, 20 yrs later, going on 20 yrs in Purgatory! "Preserved" as it were, for me to see what Elisha said in Job 36^{5/15}, which I now show you. "Job"... yea, can you relate?

Seems to me our Adversary, going to and fro, that TRADUCER (i: to expose to shame or blame by means of falsehood and misrepresentation), has discovered sex-crime allegations work far better than crying Witch in Salem ever did. You've gotta admire the evil beauty of it, dont you?

George Orwell was a genius in his book titled "1984", when he pointed out: "The enemy of the moment always represents absolute evil". The lonely derided neurotics in the land eat from the hand of Big Brother, who is actually ZOG's Emmanuel Goldstein, managing double-think problems for Thought Police to notice where it causes confusion in rogue Thinkers.

Consider Job 10:15 - "If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou my affliction". Then Job 10:16 begins: "For it increaseth", which indicates to me that all of the confusion could have been allayed there in chapter 10, if only Job had lifted up his damned head and challenged the degrading traducer rather than be a clay pigeon used for target practice! Yet it took another 32 chapters of hell on earth before we see (ch. 42:5) words heard pale to deeds seen, ending the travail in 42:7.

I'm just sayin dude, your virulence - tho misdirected, qualifies your self-determinism is more dynamic than the average degraded robot, and thus why I'm bothering to play this overwhelming peekaboo game with you. I mean, what does someone who frequently threatens suicide have left to loose, except maybe the confusion? Hence this reality check. The fear of death (Heb 2:15) is what subjugates the innately free being we all inherently miss... Freedom or Death! So few dare up their Standard I'd be remiss to neglect this opportunity to look in the water of Pro. 27^{17/19} and show you what I see in 27:18, i.e. We Learn By Teaching, right? Isn't that what the fig tree parable is all about in Lk. 13^{6/10}? REMEMBER the parable about the talents in Mt 25^{14/29}? Who am I to hold you to account, I know. I Am the Watchman of Ez 33, with clean hands, I Am! My Crusades in the 90's, suicidal as they seem, were declarations establishing my candidacy: Freedom or Death! It's taken 20 yrs in Purgatory to be able to cross the threshold though - in spite of all the wiles I had to surmount. Unlike Job, I did lift up my head - as woe just doesn't suit me, dont you see? And my progeny all flourish and prosper! It's Necessity which prompts us... Freedom or Death is by degrees, and our only limit is our imagination. Imaginations usurped by zeitgeist culture with white-washed sepulchres arousing the sixth sense in some of us to REMEMBER (Mt 23^{27/33}) what they'll never learn to embrace. "Woe unto Lawyers! ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered" as the story goes in Lk 11:52. Here's the key:

The alchemical symbol  represents V.I.T.R.I.O.L. These are the initials of the celebrated formula which encapsulated alchemical teaching - These initials form an initiatory password which also expresses the laws governing a process of transmutation which relates to 'the return of the individual to the deepest Kernel of human personality... it carries the sense of an instruction to descend to the deepest level of oneself to find that unbreakable Kernel on which to build a fresh personality and a new individuality. Visita Interiora Terrae Rectificando Invenies Occultum Lapidem, or "Explore the inner things of Earth and by distillation you will find the hidden stone". This expresses synthetically the different alchemical operations regarded from the different levels of transmutation, whether they be metals or of the human being. In the latter case the symbolism goes rather deeper since it is a matter of setting aside the different degrees of unawareness, ignorance and prejudice and of rebuilding the self on the indestructible foundation of self-awareness, through which the individual may find the immanent and transformational power of God within himself.

Return to / REMEMBER ^{3/3} the deepest level of oneself, to find that unbreakable Kernel? Naturally requires breaking through every other misunderstood Kernel which, as you know is difficult for egos attached to their aberrated point of view. Ergo the Standard of Candidacy is Freedom or Death! Which, by the way, is much easier when singing the Song of Moses (Rev. 15:3 / Deut 32:40) realizing our Eternal Nature within the Infinite.

I expect that I've went beyond your drug addled attention span by now, so let it suffice to say: REMEMBER! you alone are responsible for your condition. Your own decisions establish your world. We all CAUSE EFFECTS, it's what we do. Paying attention to what your ATTENTION is occupied by is a beginning with inspecting your kernels, if you dare want change. I can help point the way, if you'd like.

Reading about the 600$ vacuum and shopping spree of expensive gifts, I wonder what the decision was - and what it was based upon, which closed the windows of (Mal 3^{8/10}) quarterly blessings of vittles 1 1/2 yrs ago. I expect that you were unable to defend our relationship, explaining why (Mt. 25^{31/40}) the right hand is best, regardless of the wiles to surmount. But I'm grateful that you had stood in the gap for me as long as you had. Whoever it was/is who convinced you otherwise, why don't you point out Ez 22^{29/31}.

You all remain in my prayers never the less. Be blessed.
