Illuminatilordmater,

I received your comments left to me on my blog site, tell me more. I have no internet access and I cannot call this number you put down but I am interested in knowing more. I want to become more than I am. So I'm listening. Please feel free to mail me whatever you need to. Mail rules are, must have return name & address or it will not be delivered to me & you cannot send anything but paper. Tell me who the brotherhood of the illuminati is, enlighten me. I'm a poor prisoner who comes from a poor background. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask me. Most people dream of being wealthy & powerful, myself included. With money & power, maybe I could have saved people from dying, maybe I could help my mother afford her cancer drugs, maybe I could be a better version of myself. Maybe I could save my daughter from a life she doesn't want. So you have intrigued me & I'd like to learn more. If you are able to contact me directly through regular mail, please do so. I thank you for your contact & I look forward to hearing more from you soon. Ciao.
