Thank you, Jennifer, my spirit needed to hear this, I hope you are @ well and stay strong. with love and ~~gratitude~~ gratitude.

Thank you for your encouraging comments. Amanda, in all in the mindset of a person how their perspective on things. Some people don't know how to love because they was taught the connect way. All that was in my house my stepdad abusing my ma's and us. Yelling and curse, my step dad was molesting me from 9 to 13 years old. So when people showed me love true love, I would ask what are they motive behind what they doing. Some people don't love themselves because they have been devalued by other so much till you're hard on yourself. I don't look good, nobody will ever be my friend, or want to be around me. I am @ nobody. you treat yourself as a nobody when you are really somebody valuable in life. Can I be truthful being pull away from myself because I was my worst enemy. listen to negative voices

In my where others had spoken regretive in my life like my mom etc. I hate to say this God will allow a situation <sup>Bad</sup> to happen just so you can discover who you are. I am good person with good moral and value but I was empty on the inside. There was a void on the inside that had to be filled with the love of Christ. Then he taught how to love myself, him (God) and my family & friends. Then I discovered I had a purpose on earth. My talents are many, Just them to help others. But there are so many people comes from broken homes, even some from good families don't know what true love is. I want to say I love you, God loves and there is a purpose he has you on this earth.
I leave with you Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you plans to give you hope and a future.
Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me and I will listen to you. Be encouraged Keep your head up There is purpose in you

Jennifer
