Rec'd your 23rd 24th Kite last night — returning my first five flats on / my vii + xii in order to clarify your pos for me. Thank You... And I listed "Churches", eh? How many Bars/Taverns are listed, I wonder? You can tell a lot about the "community" by the yellow pages!

Anyway... you listed the "Center for Spiritual Living" first, almost as if... Well bro, it IS the one to visit with INTENT of developing [an] COMMUNITY network (unlike visiting x-tian matches for the lovely aroma), and I've gotta tell you that as high in the water it appears, I feel ... SOM added a lot of ballast which stabilized my trek - years ago, as well as now. Their "Centers" also usually have a choice of 'self help' type classes/programs too. I'd much rather attend AA or Recovery Groups there than skid row, ya know? It's definately worth looking into. I liked the last line "WE BELIEVE" which acknowledges INDIVIDUALITY. I believe your unique life experience and your disciplines in the occult may intrigue them Trav. The VALUES checklist from THIS THING CAUSED YOU, is one of their classes, F.Y.I. Duhantic earth, practical stuff.

Unlike... well I wonder if you see the practicality of CRIMINOLOGY/Scientology courses? Practical yes... yet I would NOT attend Scientology church/classes, as those* Thetans* have very serious control issues regarding conformity, which I'd certainly disrupt. The "Tech" is Scientifically practical, yet their power trip "community" is a survival of the fittest shark tank, with traps behind traps within traps, to navigate around. Poor Joe Riley has been so overwhelmed in the politics of it all, its a wonder I'd got him on my hook as long as I did. And you know me bro: it only took a couple years for me to go over Joes head and draw attention from their Chairman of the Board.—

* Mind you what LRM termed Theta (Θ)[#] 8 letter in Greek alphabet representing Thought, actually denotes Titans... currently suffering amnesia. Yea; "This is what LRM sez... and this is what Im trying to DO to rehab Thetans in my zone of influence — how 'bout you?!" I challenge. "Accountability" gets people riled enough to crucify, it does! But it also inspires though... those who Admire what is being re-presented. Its always a thrilling gamble.

Which brings me to this adoring letter from Billy. Yes indeed! We do leave our impressions upon those few who have a true desire to discover more Truth, we do. Ever define the word Altruism? I know that Im not as adoring as Billy, but I do duplicate everything he sez about your good fortune and selfless influence, ya know.

And you... with Carbuncle crown, see through my In-sanity — with the patience of a Proctologist, permit my flatulence! For the Love of Truth.

Noblesse Oblige. W.

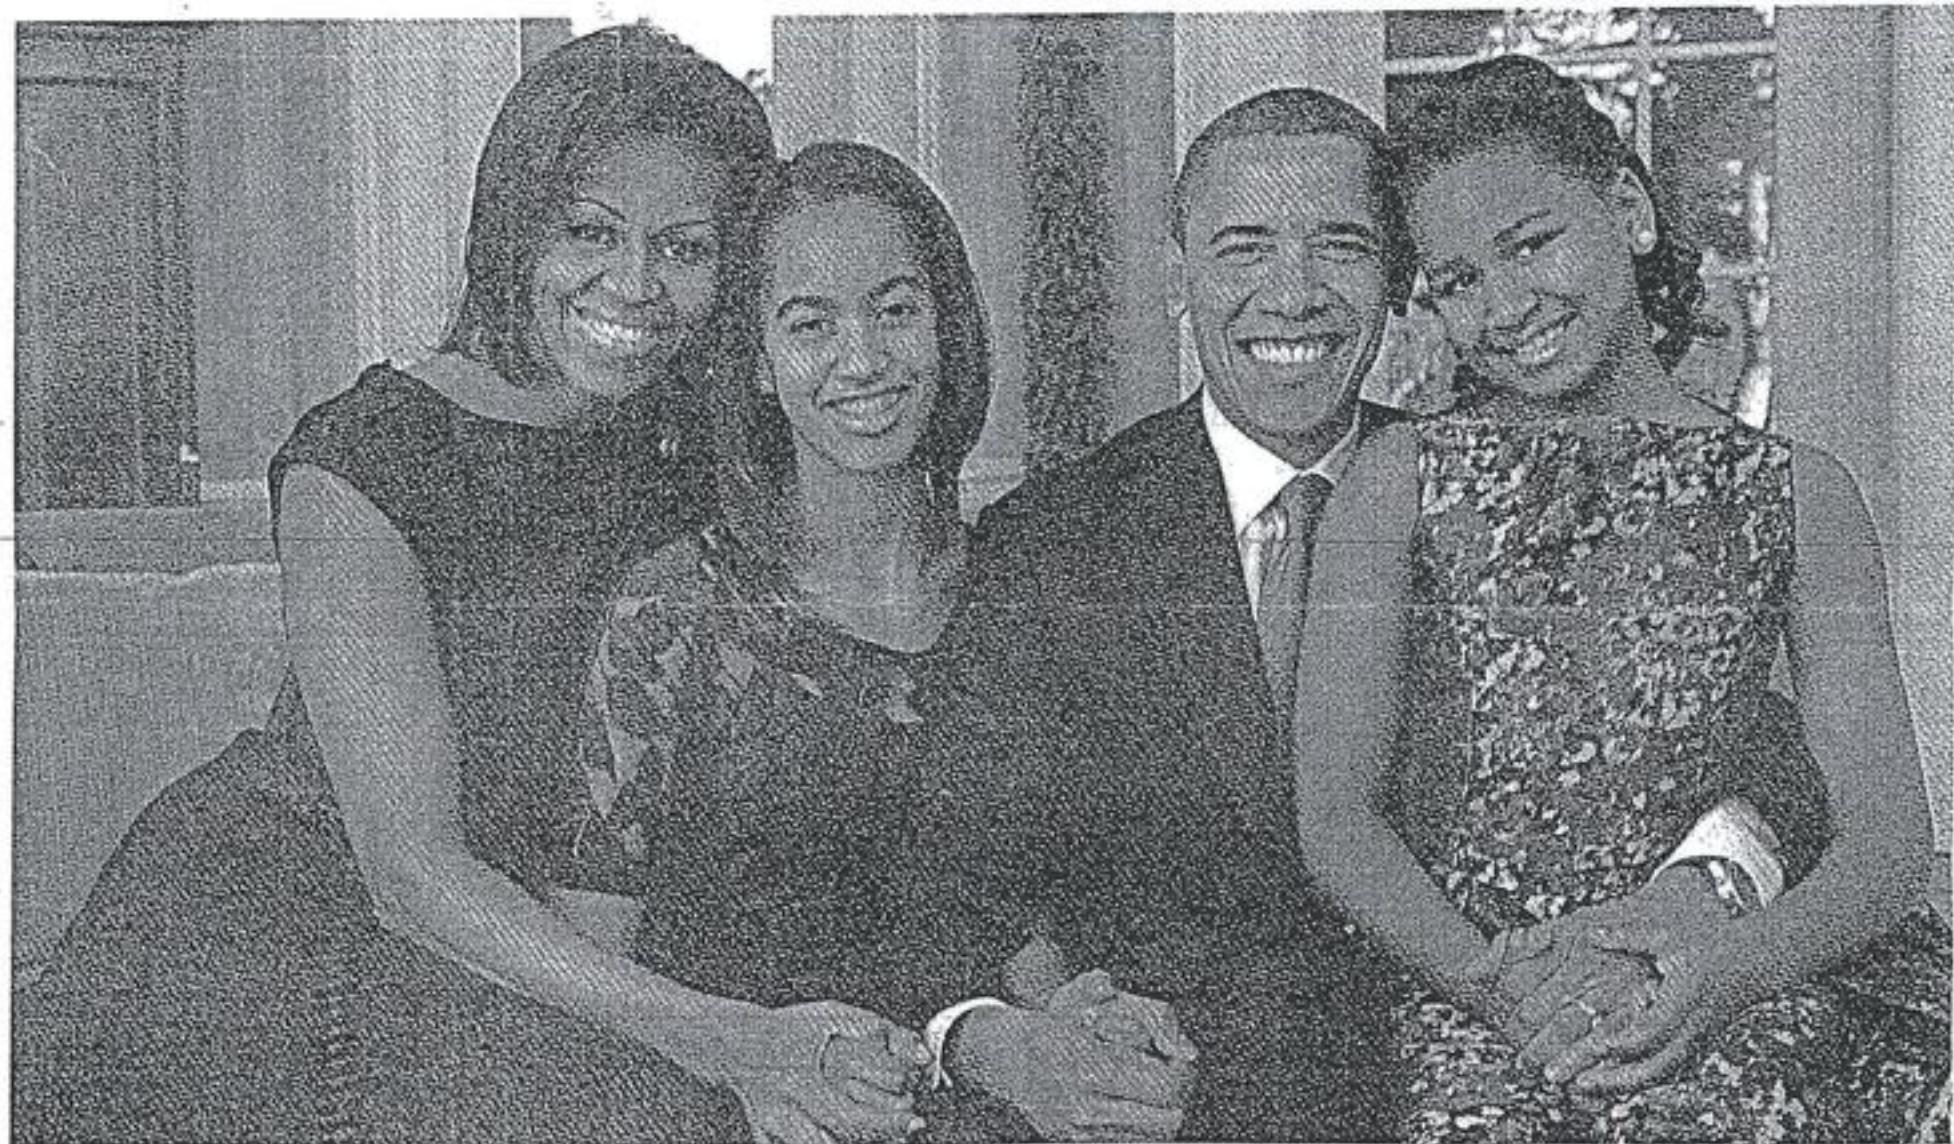

P.S.

Imagine my surprise when I received this photo below at the beginning of a second term. It's not lookin like Jim gettin a Presidential Pardon though. Over a thousand Pardons, I hear. I wonder what the numbers look like — by Race. Anyone mind re-searching that data for me please?
