That's the sentence I was given, but constantly I practice repentance, it's hard, cause I ask; myself are you, going to "really" do the whole sentence.

8 yrs at first, I couldn't comprehend it let it alone stomach it, when I signed on the dotted line, the urge to vomit came and went, never, had I been incarcerated a whole yr, to be honest, I shed a tear, simply because it dawned on me that Ima (father) 8 yrs.

Leaving the world behind an experiencing life behind bars, so far away, from the familiar; right next to the Trinity river, wishing I could drown my sorrows in the bottom of it, but who like's, the sound of that 8 yrs.

I've lost so much, the love, I called my forever friend, who I dedicated my life to, like a pledge of allegiance, sure she had a lot of grievance's, hey I'm not perfect, but we both know! I was worth it (God) don't make no "mistake's" my heart constantly ach's that's why I cry through this, pencil, my utensil, that bare's my burden's she know's that I was hurting our son is about to be 8 yrs old and your "pregnant"!!! 8 yrs 5 down 3 to go ?!?
