inspired by my faith

To my savior, who has, known me since the beginning of time, the righteous one, that emancipated me, from self, oh what a troubled man I was, because with out em I'm nothing a bow with no arrows, a sparrow, with no wind beneath my wings, so it seemed I controlled my destiny, "and honestly", he brought out the greatness in thee, teaches me through his word ovaan ova to give him my burden's, cause for certain, he supplies all our need's; but I cry out that this generatation has lost its way, but continously I pray and he answers, by saying I gave'm a choice an they chose thien on way, but he expresses that I'm here with open arms whenever they come back home constantly explaining that he's the alpha an Omega, what's happened, has already happened, everything is everything, I gave'm the manuscript, tellem to read it Amen !!
