Hey Dan,

I made a mistake in a previous post. It's smashwords.com, not wordsmash, where you can post my poetry books for free.

You, I trust more than anyone. You're a Boy Scout, which means you have a Boy Scout's faithful morals. I'm very appreciative of your help + that you reached in to me.

There are two volumes of Em Daer, on my page prisoninmates.com/NateLindell303724

Vol. 1 is, I think, the better one. For Volume 1, all you'd need to do is type/transcribe the title, the intro + leave the rest of the text (my handwriting) as visual documents. It'd be a hassle, I think, for you to transcribe the actual poems then attach the drawings that go with them to the transcribed version.

Please let me know when it's done, either through this blog or jmail.cc. If you sent an e-mail to me at natester75@gmail.com, I haven't got it. Don't send anything there but your e-mail address, as Archelle runs it, on her schedule - it's been two months since I heard from her...

Not much else to say. Been "distracted," doing legal work for other prisoners + over our prison system illegally taking $ from most prisoners. I use my time, ^{well} try to make people laugh + learn at the same time, as you can see from the posts on my blog.

What else?

If you want/can, you can help me by ordering post-paid envelopes + paper from JLMarcusWisconsin.com item # 8039 (5-pack envelopes, I'm allowed up to 6 5-packs at a time)

4304 (100 sheets paper, one at a time allowed)

You might not have realized it, but my mom + my brother testified against me, for rotten reasons, which you'll get insight on in my essay/memoir in Parental Incarceration, Routledge 2016.

I don't hate either of them, but I hate what they did, why they did it + they're not in my life. I wrote my brother, told him I forgive him - but he still didn't acknowledge the sickness of testifying against his brother (at my mom's urging) for a crappy deal, something even the Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel implied was despicable.
