Hi Alyssa, Happy New Year. I received your comment from Between the Bars & hope all is well with you. You asked me to be part of your "research" by answering some questions for you. In my almost 22 years imprisoned, I have allowed myself to be part of people's research & "class projects". However afterwards I felt completely used by the person. There was never any human interaction from the person. Not even a thank you. Being that I always put thought, time & effort, as well as personal expense into such help for a person, I stopped complying as they requested so freely. Years ago I decided the least a person could do - is give me a little human interaction before parting ways once they get what they wanted. I'm sure you'd want nothing less from others. With that said, I simply ask you to kindly write to me directly here at the Unit at: Bobby Fratta - Polunsky Unit, #999189 - 3872 FM 350 South - Livingston, TX 77351. Please enclose a photo of yourself & tell me just a little about yourself & your intentions. I'm not asking for romance, sex talk, or money. Just a little conversation, & an address I can write to you directly at also. None, I repeat, NONE of perhaps 20 people I've asked this of after they asked me to help them out - ever replied back to me. Are you any different from them? Your actions ~~or lack thereof~~ or lack thereof will tell:) Hoping to hear from you, Bobby,
