

TO THE EMPOWERED/ELECTORS OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Before you is an issue of grave importance which addresses concerns that only the Legislators can fix. For far too long a mother or father has been over charged, wrongfully convicted and aggressively sentenced by the hands of our judicial system all because of their geographical location. In many instances it's merely because of who they know and the culture that they was taught to follow.