49 months to go! Life is slowly getting better. I have a good feeling about 2017. I wanna put all my energy in my art. I welcome all art lovers to reach out to me in letter or email me at jpay.com. I would love to upgrade my art supplies and I am open to ideas of ways to sell my art to go towards the art goals that I have. If you or anyone you know would like to have something drawn or made, picture frames, boxes, jewelry boxes, please contact me. I specialize in art for all and that can be hung on your wall if put in picture frame. I plan on putting something on my blog. I will work on it over the weekend. Until then hit me up at Augusta Corr Center 1821 Estaline Valley Rd Craigsville, VA 24430 or email me at www.jpay.com Shawn Barb #1047380. I think that I have to be emailed first before I can email.

Also, if anyone knows any place who would donate any art books or magazines "PLEASE" give info. Old tattoo magazines are good for getting ideas. Anything helps and is welcomed.
