- MORE RETALIATION FROM THE D.O.C. / LAWYERS ON THE JOB

Well in another episode of department of corruption retaliation the Nazi's at the Human Resources Division have joined the push to attempt to silence the Free Speech Warrior and his efforts to expose the salary thieves in the employee of the dark forces. I made a Public Records Law Request of the "Layabout Supervisor" Patty Blizzard asking for the salaries from 2016 of the Norfolk-World Superintendent "The Big Chorizo" and the NorfolkWorld "Bad Electrician" Reese The Fleece. Well old Patty Cakes decided she needed to notify The Big Chorizo, which is WAY outside of public records policy, and then The Big Chorizo decided he better let "The Fleece" know that Free Speech Central is seeking his 2016 blood money total. Now only in the department of corruption would employees feel you need to take retaliatory measures when someone exercises a constitutionally protected right. My job is to expose these layabouts and let the taxpayers know just how much of their hard earned money goes toward paying folks who run the ship on the rocks year after year. You know that I will post their salary on this blog, as is my right, and I will accompany those figures with my descriptions of what they "don't do" to earn it. Guys like The Fleece, who do all in their power to hate on the cons and treat us as less than human, can expect that their shit will be on front street. We have ears everywhere and eyes in the sky. If you want to pass out Christmas cookies; take care of the workers. Don't make a bitch run to the union crying about your fellow workers using con labor and costing you overtime; that is being a rat! You dined on your own guys??? Don't you get it?

Patty Blizzard sits out in The White House (literally that is what these fools call it) and thinks she is beyond the reach of Free Speech Central. Guess what? A storm is coming and it won't be your typical white out. We have the BIG GUNS, the real movers and shakers of the civil rights movement, on board. I exercise my protected rights and the oxygen wasters feel this is grounds to place me in the cross hairs; wrong guys folks. Please do not confuse me with someone who gives a fuck. I don't. We will expose the madness hidden behind this gray wall. We will use those tactics to try to bring change. important people are on board and the time is coming when they will invade this place; taking names and sending folks packing! Stop con hating. Just do your job. The "sugar" ain't the problem behind the homebrew; your overcrowded prison is. The "suboxone" ain't behind the drug problems; your restrictive take away all that is good policies are. The "K-2" ain't the issue; your Scary Sherry incompetence is. Get it straight or get it published. The Green ChickenHead is NOT a deputy. He is just a gloried cook. The Fleece is not entitled to automatic overtime; is that a "shocker"! Stop the bullshit retaliation and grow the fuck up! viva Free Speech! I'm on it!!

More To Come...
