Hi Michele:

Thanks for your words of encouragement. I have enjoyed hearing from you many times over the years.

You really surprised me with your comment about the dish rags. It has been many years since I've done anything like that. I'm flattered that you still have them and remember who made them. I am currently immersed in drawing - something I'll be writing about soon. If you want to see some of my artwork, go to my Face Book page.

May God bless you and keep you healthy, happy & wise.

Harlan
