Dear Julia,

Howdy! Thanks so much for your response!

Yes, it really sucked to be in the Hole. I didn't lose as much as I have at other places, but it's always a horrible experience.

There is no difference between the hole & unholy! Ha! The hole is unholy! We're locked up the entire time except for an hour on non-Friday.

And yes, you have a cellie & you're stuck in there together whether you like it or not. Sometimes they'll let you move to another cell if you ask.

Wow! The Netherlands! I've always wanted to visit & would love to see the tulips in bloom. They're one of my favorite flowers.

It seems strange that a Dutch newspaper would have an article about this site. Does this site have European prisoners as well? It really amazes me that people in Europe read this. Thank you so much for being a reader.

I came across this site in a resource guide for prisoners - possibly in the "Ultraviolet" newspaper
