

Hi ALYSSA!! How are you? Hope you are well when this finds you. You're very welcome it was my pleasure to answer your questions. What am I going to do with you? (Smile) You sound like you like testing boundaries... However I am so glad to know your 28 and can handle adult conversation. You have my word I won't be anything less than honest with you. Alyssa, so you are full aware any& every thing we post can be seen by the world. Though I do enjoy our exchanges you have full anonymity. Look this isn't a Pandora's box but if you would like to really converse with me more privately write me via snail mail: Anthony Peete # 216285

Hey no pressure I just would like to put a face to our conversation, of course with whatever pace your comfortable. So with out further delay lets make you smile. What are ways that some men deal with missing women in prison? I guess a lot depends on the state some prisons allow nude magazines, nude photo's. There are a lot of companies that make a lot of money selling fantasies to men in prison, for those not lucky enough to have someone special in there life to send them photo's to help them get through the hard days & nights. (No point intended) Smile! Reading penthouse novels are big in here. 2) Do men change not being around women? Alyssa I think being in prison hardens a man mentally. I can only speak for me but I bet men in general think about sex 75% of the time regardless whether incarcerated or not. Probably just as much as women. Hey we are still human! One thing I am certain of never underestimate the power of a woman's touch nothing on god's green earth compares. 3) How do I think this affects them when they are released? Honestly I think it makes a man freaky as hell!!! (Smile) Trust me there are only a few things I wouldn't do to please... I mean to really appreciate the beauty a woman possesses. Okay Alyssa do you know what it feels like to be truly hungry? Where you could eat a saltine cracker and it would taste like a juicy burger. I bet one remembers that first & last bite. The taste, the smell, the feel, to every last detail. Which brings me to, 4) How do men deal with there "needs"? Ms. Ajj13 your funny (smile) Again I can only speak for myself but one does try not to think about sex or woman for that matter, we are still human, and we do get horny much like every one else. It also gets hard when we watch TV now and it's sex, sex. One can't help but to masturbate to relieve some of the longing... Hey the power of imagination is a beautiful thing! It's okay go on and laugh at me. Alyssa this is just real life one can't suppress personal memories. Alyssa what's a taboo topic in this day and age. I take it your referring to sex between men. Hey I have no aspirations to be a judge to each is his own, but those types of relations happen some forced and some willingly. Hey I guess curiosity gets the best of some. However I love every thing there is about a woman, from the look of a woman's body to the smell and taste. Hmm the taste! OH sorry I got lost in thought smile... 5) Do I think men become more reserved or don't know how to deal with a woman's touch when released? Again I think a lot of that depends on what transpired during ones incarceration, but for myself I truly appreciated the touch of a woman again not just sexually. The smell of a woman's perfume & body lotions. The touch of y'all hands, fingers, curves, legs... All the way down to y'all toes. I guess at the end of the day one has to know what he appreciates in a woman and what he's willing to do too keep her. Alyssa can I ask you some thing what made you come up with these questions? I would really like to hear your thoughts. Try to only believe half of what you see on TV. Well Alyssa

I've enjoyed our conversation feel free to ask anything else that comes to mind. Until next time stay sweet.
