

The Right Thing

Hello EVERYONE, I want to share something with you God put on my heart. God talks to us all the time but we usually allow the enemies voice to drown him out. We all know what the right thing to do is, not because we are taught it but because there is a soft voice inside of us telling us to do this or don't do that. Now we are told that this is our conscience but I'm telling you this is the voice of our father. However there is another voice telling us, go ahead and do it no one will ever know or why should you do that no one would do it for you or what do you get out of it. This is the voice of Satan and he is trying to lead you away from God and twist your life into pain and misery where he gains power. How many times have you listened to the hateful and selfish voice and ended up in trouble or hurt or ashamed of yourself. What's even worse is you actually get away with it so you follow that voice again and again, until it becomes habit and then BAM something horrible happens and your life is destroyed usually along with someone else. The Devil really enjoys these long term scenarios because it causes the maximum amount of pain and misery. But throughout it all that loving voice was there trying to help you to save you. Now I ask you, if you have been tricked by that other voice, because I have, I caused pain to myself and to those I love and if you feel alone and if you think no one could ever love you again, I dare you to ask, "Are you still there?" You will hear, "Of course I am." Then you will want to ask, "Are you God?" You will hear, "Yes, I am God." You will be afraid to ask, "Do you hate me?" He will say, "Of course not, I am your father and I love you, I always have and I always will." You will want to know what to do now. He will say, "Just let me love you, let me heal you and if you could find it in yourself to be able to love me back, well it's all I ever wanted." We all know what the right thing to do is, just open up your heart and let God's love flow into you and let the healing start. Don't worry about changing, you and God will take care in time, just start listening to the voice of love and know he only wants the best for you. God Bless you all.
