

XYZZST pt. 2

Forgive, the internal action no witnesses, OR repentance required Forgiveness is the first step towards turning the tide

(FORGIVE)

I'll even go as far to state that to forgive can be medicinal a fact check of your history may discover forgiveness uniquely traditional one must experience this power sustaining it's force, hour to hour second to second, minute by minute to fully appreciate this reality you've got to be in it

Regardless of Race, age OR class and all that forgiveness is open to the only thing forgiveness truly requires is you.

Create a mental list and forgive those who may have campaigned anti-thetical to your growth and health

then move to amplify it's energy by remembering to forgive yourself because the truth is that you are not the way you are because you were molested, you were molested because someone chose to have sex with a child.

So nothing is wrong with you,
 you are perfectly you,
 and not responsible for the actions of those that violated your childhood, Today, you stop blaming yourself for being you, as though God is capable of

We rush to ask Gods and other sorts of Deities to forgive us, and we never see them face to face.

But when we are called to be the forgiver, to those that we can see, we become more not like the Gods we so claim to love and worship.

Those days are over, people are forgiven because you say so, and that's power. Nobody needs to ask for it, in fact, they don't even need to know about it, what's important is that you tell those that need to hear it from somebody that they understand, and that person is you, because your experience alone is proof that not only do you understand, but work everyday to rid yourself from the emotional attachments to the attractiveness of the struggle and revenge. People must know that you are connected to how peace is able to win. Writing like this, and knowing that someday you would read it, is my, how, peace is a winner. I only gave you portions of my life leading up to the age of ten years young, imagine how much love and forgiveness you can generate wherever you are, just by being fed up with war and unforgiveness.

Our community is in trouble, we all need you to get back out in society, get back to the yard, get back to conversation and let your otherself know that they are not alone, and we got work to do.

They call us Black Gay Congress members with zero love and direction, and all things sexual based.
It's not other peoples fault that they don't know the real you. IF OUR youngerselves don't see care and understanding, that would be our fault.

It's no longer about what you did, or what people say you did, that's done, the only thing that is not done, is what you will do tomorrow. Get creative, mix it up, be yourself, engage no today, and be ready to embrace yes tomorrow.

And always remember that listening is a skill, especially when you invite people to talk.

Some people just want to be heard, to vent, and get things off of their chest without facing adverse persecution. Even when we don't agree, we at least know where we all stand, and it's our obligation that we, Stand Together.

— XYZZST (exist)

Here, I issue the challenging call for dispositions based on Jealousy within the incarcerated, hood related, and over all LGBTQ Community.

Our range, though multidiversified, identities, still constitutes one family, and when we openly display contempt for each other, we exacerbate the tone for others to enjoy engaging in the attempt keep us all under continuous struggle. Forgiveness is not Religious, forgiveness is human, so, Forgive past relationship struggles, for at this point, in society, none of us have the luxury for self destructive dispositions. The universe has provided enough love for us not to be able to continue to move on toward it, and release past lovers, to the freedom of movement, for themselves.

Staying friends after a tough break up can be a good thing in any relationship, however remaining family, is even more valuable in these times, so I ask that all of you continue to support a more family valued, and community centered disposition, moving forward.

From our most flamboyant, through the ranges of us that reaches to our innercity Homies, we've got to do a better job about how we treat each other, all in favor say, love deeper.
